Travis Credit Union $50 Refer-A- Loan Promotion

Feb. 14 to April 30, 2013

Official Rules

Referred member must join Travis Credit Union (TCU) by presenting proof of physical address and completed $50 Refer-A-Loan referral card in-person at a branch between February 14 and April 30, 2013. The referred member must then apply for and be approved for a TCU consumer loan of at least $15,000, with the loan funded during this period to be eligible for the referral incentive payment of $50 or be approved for and funded a consumer loan of between $5,000 and $14,999 for a referral incentive payment of $25.

Consumer loans, as defined in this promotion, apply only to auto loans, credit cards and personal loans and personal lines of credit. All TCU real estate loans, including home equity lines of credit and home equity loans, are not eligible. This promotion may not be combined with any other TCU offer or loan discounts.

Referral payments will be deposited directly into the existing and the referred members' accounts within 45 days after the referred member's loan is approved. There is no limit on the number of referral payments member may receive for successfully referring qualifying members to TCU during the promotion period. Referred members must be at least 18 years of age or older and meet membership, loan and promotion requirements. Member is responsible for applicable tax consequences associated with this offer. Please consult your tax advisor. Travis Credit Union reserves the right to end this incentive promotion at any time. Other restrictions and requirements may apply.

Travis Credit Union employees, volunteers and their immediate family members are not eligible to participate in this promotion.

Everyone who lives, works, attends school or worships in our 12-county region is eligible for membership at Travis Credit Union.
