

Making college dreams come true

Mary Keith Duff Memorial Scholarship Program

About Mary Keith Duff

Travis Credit Union is proud to sponsor the Mary Keith Duff Memorial Scholarship Program for graduating high school seniors who are members of the credit union.

This scholarship, which was created in 2004, honors the late Mary Keith Duff, a credit union volunteer known for her hard work, judgment and dedication. Mary was the first woman to serve on the Travis Credit Union Board of Directors. She will be remembered for her wonderful spirit and unwavering responsibility to give her very best to the members she represented.

We present these scholarships to student-members who exemplify the very best in our youth.

Making college dreams come true

Credit unions were founded on the philosophy of “People Helping People”. At Travis Credit Union, we embrace principles that promote human development and look for ways to fulfill social responsibilities. Offering scholarships to deserving high school seniors is just one way we are assisting our young members with the rising cost of higher education, while reinforcing our commitment to the financial success of our country’s future leaders.

Scholarship

Travis Credit Union annually awards $2,000 each to twenty (20) high school seniors who are accepted into college for the fall of their graduation year.

Eligibility

- A TCU member in good standing
- A graduating high school senior
- A grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0
